FEATURE TO SUNSPERO

Proves Easily Best in Main Race at Churchill Downs.

Starbeck Again in Reversal of Form—Jockey Griffin in Limelight.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Nov. 5.—Sunspero, carrying the colors of J. G. McGill, was winner of Churchill Downs' feature race this afternoon, when he beat home Bradley's Toney in handy style over the mile route, with Cherrycote a close up third. Sunspero was the first of the favorites to score during the afternoon, four choices having gone down to defeat in previous contests.

Sunspero raced as if the best. Griffin kept him under restraint for five-eighths, but in close pursuit of Cherrycote. He took command with ease when called on and was well under restraint at the end. Bradley's Toney was a laggard in last place until the stretch was reached, where he moved up rapidly and finishing gamely appeared going as fast as the winner.

Starbeck again figured in the limelight here by his inconsistent racing. In a preceding start he won from a good band at the mile distance, but in today's racing he figured prominently only for five-eighths before he began fading fast, and he would have been in last place at the finish only for Dustabout being eased in the last sixteenth.

Summerlike weather was again the order here and the usual large attendance was present. The small fields produced spirited racing, with several finishes of the thrilling variety.

HUON PINE BY INCHES.

Jockey Griffin, who is fast looming up as one of the most promising lightweights in the country, again showed some brilliant horsemanship and to his superior ride can be attributed the victory of Huon Pine in the fourth race. This colt won by a matter of inches in the last stride from Queer, primarily because of Gormley's blundering riding of the latter colt. Queer was best, but Gormley, for no apparent reason, took back in the stretch when he was racing with Easter Bells, and the ground he lost to go around Easter Bells would have insured him an easy victory. He finished well and only succumbed in the last stride. Sayno was up in time to land third place, Easter Bells having tired badly during the last sixteenth, after being the leader from the start.

The public inaugurated betting activities inauspiciously when they gave Isaman and Climax preference in the introductory dash, won by Nimrod in the easiest manner possible after he had led for the entire way by a good margin. Climax managed to outstay the others for second place, with Miss Rosedale just lasting to nose out the extreme outsider, Lady Jane, for the shorter portion of the purse. Isaman gave promise in the early stages, when he raced in second place, but beginning the stretch run he faded fast and brought up in last place.

LUCKY DRIFT VICTRESS.

Sari and Fair Vision had the call in the second race, with Twilight Hour also extensively regarded, but the finish found Lucky Day the victress after a hard sustained drive to keep in advance of Fair Vision.

The winner led from the start, but was pursued closely by Fair Vision and the latter at one period of the stretch held considerable promise, but Lucky Drift proved the gamest under Lilley's strong riding. Twilight Hour might have been more formidable but for getting away from the barrier stumbling and suffering interference when Lucky Drift came over from an outer position. She raced into prominence in the stretch after having been a distant follower, but she tired in the last seventy yards. Sari's performance was a dull one and she was far back for most of the contest.

About as ordinary a band as could be mustered here were the starters in the mile and a sixteenth dash, but it finished an exciting finish between La Planche de Briante and Repeater, both being urged hard at the end, with the first mentioned winning out. Pequot finished in third place. The latter showed the most speed until straightened for the stretch, where he began giving away and just lasted for third place. There was considerable activity about Eelman in the race, but he acted badly at the post and retired after half a mile.

The Idle Hour Farm Stable accounted for a purse when Bargain Day beat home a fairly good band of juveniles that started in the sixth race. Bargain Day was a forward factor for most of the way and wore down Agnes Call in the last eighth. The latter looked like the winner after she displaced The Badger from the lead, but she weakened steadily and just held on long enough to outstay Silver Slippers and the fast coming Vallette. The latter had closed an immense gap in the last quarter. The Badger quit completely after he ran three-quarters.

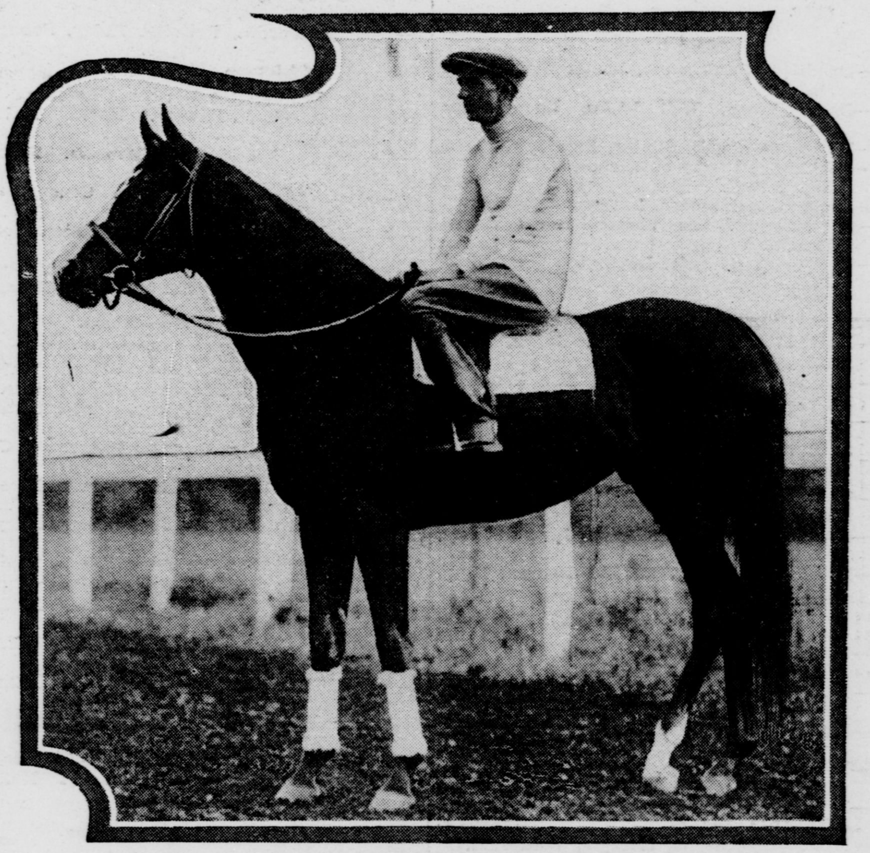
BON VOYAGE FOR EPINARD



EPINARD

Epinard, the French champion, is now enroute to his native land, having started for France yesterday on the Berengaria. The admiration and best wishes of all American sportsmen go with the game invader, which though beaten was not disgraced. All join in wishing him a bon voyage.

KING GEORGE'S NEW RIDER

J. Childs to Succeed Herbert Jones as First Jockey for English Ruler.

(SPECIAL CABLEGRAM.)

LONDON, England, Nov. 5.—J. Childs will ride as first jockey for His Majesty next year. Childs, who has for a number of years been recognized as one of the leading horsemen, was born at Chantilly, the famous French training center, but served his apprenticeship with T. Jennings at Newmarket. Among the many successes Childs has gained were victories in the Substitute Derby on Fifinella and Gainsborough, in the Oaks on Mirska, Bayuda, Love in Idleness and Fifinella. Childs was successful in the St. Leger on Hurry On and Gainsborough and he also won this classic at Doncaster on Pole March. Other successes include the Goodwood Cup and Princess of Wales' Stakes on Triumph, Goodwood Stakes on Haki, and the Eclipse Stakes on Buchan, in addition to many victories in big handicaps.

The king's jockey before Childs' appointment was Herbert Jones, who was taken seriously ill last year and has not been able to ride since. Jones won the Derby for King Edward on Diamond Jubilee in 1900 and 1909. Since his illness there has been no regular first jockey to the Royal Stable. Wragg rides the lighter weights and has a retainer. Archibald has frequently donned the King's colors.

EPINARD SAILS FOR FRANCE

French Champion Departs for Home in Charge of Trainer Eugene Leigh.

NEW YORK, N. Y., Nov. 5.—Pierre Wertheimer's Epinard and his American trainer, Eugene Leigh, sailed for France on the Berengaria today at noon. With the French invader went Satin Slipper, the filly that accompanied him to this country and two brood mares from Major August Belmont's Nursery Stud, Quelle Chance and Hour Hand.

Satin Slipper is now the property of Hamilton Farm but her new owners arranged for her to be mated in the spring with Epinard. The Belmont mares will also be bred to the son of Badajoz—Epine Blanche.

Pete, the airedale which came here with Epinard, was also a member of the party. He was assigned to guard a pile of fodder and when two longshoremen approached too close to his post he showed his disapproval by biting them. The disturbance that followed caused trainer Leigh to miss several of his friends who went to the pier to see him off.

A. S. THOMPSON RE-ELECTED

Will Again Head Jefferson Parish Fair Association—Board of Directors Named.

BALTIMORE, Md., Nov. 5.—A. S. Thompson, president of the Jefferson Parish Fair Association during the regime of James F. O'Hara and G. D. Bryan, Jr., has been rechosen to head the Louisiana Association, according to word received here by J. B. Campbell, racing secretary at Jefferson Park.

Following are the directors of the new organization at Jefferson Park: A. S. Thompson, Lee A. Marrero, A. Rouprich, Jos. L. Lemarie, R. S. Maestri, R. S. Eddy, Jr., and R. A. Leigh.

At the first meeting, which opens Thanksgiving day and closes December 31, six races for $700 purses will be run and one for a $1,000 purse, except on Thanksgiving and Christmas days, when $2,500 handicaps will replace the $1,000 contests.

AGA KHAN VICTORIOUS

Son of Omar Khayyam Accounts for Pimlico Autumn Handicap.

Only Three Horses in the Field, Senator Norris Finishing Second and Big Blaze Third.

BALTIMORE, Md., Nov. 5.—Aga Khan, a three-year-old colt by Omar Khayyam—Lady Garnet, and the property of the Belair Stud, was returned winner of the eighth renewal of the Pimlico Autumn Handicap at a mile and one-quarter, the feature of this afternoon's Pimlico card. Guy Bedwell's Senator Norris was second, beaten three and a half lengths, while Big Blaze, winner of the $25,000 Washington Handicap, the only other starter, was third, one length behind the Cudgel colt. Aga Khan ran the mile and a quarter in 2:05, three-fifths of a second under the record for the fixture, made by Oceanic in 1922.

For the first three-quarters Senator Norris showed the way with Big Blaze rated just off the pace, and Aga Khan bringing up the rear. There was little or no change in their positions until reaching the far bend, when both Big Blaze and Aga Khan closed in on Senator Norris.

At the three-quarters post Aga Khan came around Big Blaze and Senator Norris. Straightened out for the run through the stretch, the Belair colt was a length in front of the Bedwell color bearer, while the latter was a like distance in front of Big Blaze.

Johnny Maiben, who had the leg up on Aga Khan, gradually widened the gap between his mount and Senator Norris until reaching the finish Aga Khan was three and a half lengths to the good. Senator Norris held Big Blaze safe for second place by a length.

Big Blaze was tired at the end. The race was worth $3,810 to the Belair Stud.

REPARATION IN FRONT.

In the Glenmore Purse, sixth on the program, Reparation began fast, raced Miss Cerina into defeat and easily held Ten Minutes safe at the end of the mile and seventy yards. Maiben, astride Reparation, piloted his second succesive winner. Two and a half lengths separated Reparation from Ten Minutes at the end. Miss Cerina was beaten by a length and a half for second place and outlasted Blind Play by a neck for third place.

The public centered on the wrong one in the first race, a claiming dash at five and a half furlongs for juvenile fillies, when Fred Glassen's Lady Glassen led home by three lengths Bother, Clonaslee, the favorite, and ten others. Bother attempted to keep pace with the winner and did for the first three-eighths, but once the turn into the stretch was reached the Glassen filly drew away to score in easy fashion. The struggle for the minor portions of the purse was more spirited with Bother outlasting Clonaslee.

STEEPLECHASE TO BARLEYYCORN.

J. E. Widener's Barleycorn beat St. Lawrence by six lengths in the Baltimore Steeplechase, a maiden race at two miles. The winning son of Light Brigade—Five Acres was bought recently from Logan Denny, by his present owner, for $10,000. Mitrailleuse was the only other one of six starters to finish. He was beaten off. Flying Scotchman fell at the third fence, rendering H. McDonnell unconscious for a few moments.

San Dimas lost his rider at the same obstacle on the next turn of the field. Graylette ran out at the tenth and, being brought back into the course, was finishing when he ran out again at the thirteenth. The first two at the finish had the race between themselves at all times.

St. Lawrence jumped better than the son of Light Brigade and made the pace within a half mile of the finish. Then Pierce, who had rated Barleycorn well, sent him around the outside of the pacemaker and wore him down.

The longest-priced winner of the meeting went over in the fourth, when J. L. Price's King O'Neill II., beat the favorite, The Roll Call, by a short head. Rigel, second choice in the speculation, was third by a length and a half. The Roll Call went to the front when rounding the clubhouse turn and was still maintaining sway on the far bend with Rigel the one closest in attendance.

At the turn into the stretch McTague, astride King O'Neill II., found racing room on the inside, slipped through and in a driving finish earned the decision in the last few strides. King O'Neill II.'s mutuel price was $95.80.

It was the first winner ridden in Maryland by McTague, who is under contract to J. C. Fletcer, but here under call to S. M. Henderson.

Beginning fastest of all and opening up a three lengths lead going down the backstretch, Thomas Monahan's Thunderbolt never left the result in doubt in the running of the third race, another maiden dash, at three-quarters, for all ages. Sun Altos was

Here and There on the Turf

Retirement of Sarazen.
Zev and the "Soft Spots."
Value of Condition Races.
Chilhowee for New Orleans.

Max Hirsch has sent both Sarazen and Nicholas into retirement. They have been returned to Belmont Park from Maryland and will loaf through the cold months that they be fit and ready for what is offered in 1925. Sarazen, during his brilliant fall campaign, stamped himself as the horse of the year, but in his last race, the Washington Handicap at Laurel, it was evident that he had staled a bit, so that it is not surprising that Hirsch should pass up the Pimlico engagements.

The son of High Time and Rush Box does not appear to be a particularly robust horse and it does not do to have him in engagements too close together. In the Third International Special at Latonia, it is doubtful if there ever was a horse that could have beaten him over its mile and a quarter distance. He covered the route in 2:00⅘ and it is suspected that the 2:00 of Whisk Broom II. in the Suburban Handicap of 1913, was a mistake in timing. There was no doubt of the time hung out by Sarazen, but apart from the phenomenal time that was recorded by the swift-running son of High Time, what made his race so remarkable was the way he followed flying Chilhowee to run past him without an apparent effort.

Then Sarazen came back in the mile and a quarter of the Maryland Handicap at Laurel, in which he carried six pounds over his scale weight, and made a big concession to each other starter, yet he was again a winner and in fast time. In the Washington Handicap, under the same weight carried in the Maryland Handicap, Sarazen was beaten and in slower time than was hung out in either of his sensational winning races.

While frequently it has been pointed out that too much importance may be put on the value of time, it applies in a measure to the performance of Sarazen in indicating how he had "gone off" after his victory in the Maryland Handicap. He is a gelding of extreme speed. He is lion-hearted, as has been shown on various occasions, but it is not fair to ask him to go through with his campaign when it is evident that he is not at the top of his form.

That is reason enough for his retirement and it is hoped and expected that Hirsch will bring him back next year one of the best handicap performers ever seen in this country.

Sam Hildreth had to practice a deal of patience with Zev before he brought him back this year. The three-year-old conqueror of Papyrus last year and a colt that wellnigh swept all before him did not promise well as a four-year-old. For a time he was going in a way that would have discouraged a less patient man than Hildreth, but he has always known that Zev is a real race horse and he is being rewarded in these fall days.

One bright afternoon Frank Hackett, in studying the Latonia book, found some spots for Zev. The first was a three-quarters race so framed that, while Zev is the greatest American money winner in history, he was able to be in there under 108 pounds. That was truly a soft spot and a purse was picked up. But that was not the only soft spot. That race was run October 10 and following there was another three-quarters dash that let Zev in under 110 pounds. Again he was a winner. That was Saturday, and the Monday following the same Zev, in the Columbus Day purse, had only to shoulder 117 pounds and he had taken his third race at the meeting.

Then came the Havlin Hotel Handicap at a mile and the son of The Finn and Miss Kearney was assigned 129 pounds and again won. That is how Zev went into Kentucky to come away with four victories from October 10 to October 18, and only one of these was a handicap. Hackett found the spots and they surely were easy ones, when the good four-year-old could race under such weights.

But Zev really needs little weight help in his present condition, as was shown when he won the first of the Serial Weight-for-Age races at Pimlico Tuesday. It was over the three-quarters route and under his scale weight of 130 pounds he ran its three-quarters in 1:12 to beat Goshawk, Lucky Play and others.

The remaining weight-for-age races to which Zev is eligible are over the mile and mile and one-eighth distance. Last year Zev was the winner of the mile and an eighth serial from Homestretch and Tryster and after that he wound up his campaign by beating In Memoriam at Churchill Downs in one of the greatest races of the year. It was the only one of the Pimlico Serials of 1923 in which Zev was started.

While there was some congratulation among the Kentuckians when Hildreth went away with Zev, there is no denying that these condition races are popular. Too often racing secretaries devote the book, apart from the stakes, the conditions for which are thought out far in advance, to claiming races and handicaps.

This gives the good horse scant chance for employment after he reaches a high place in the handicaps. He cannot be raced in claiming races and, when he goes after the handicaps, he earns his way to a place where the weights are so excessive that, even should he continue to take races, he is in imminent danger of breaking down every time he is sent to the post.

There should be a greater premium for developing a good horse. He should not be sentenced to handicaps after he becomes a four-year-old. That is to say he should have other than handicap opportunities. The handicap is one of the best races on the turf, but the racing secretary that makes a close study of horses and their form can readily frame conditions from time to time that will bring good ones close together without resorting to the handicap.

This naturally means a deal of intelligent work on the part of the racing secretary. He must know his horses and what the horses have accomplished, but, at this time, with the voluminous records that are so easily available, there is nothing like the labor that was entailed in the time of old "Crick." When racing programs are merely made for platers of different degrees and handicaps as the opportunity for the better horses, there is less incentive for development of the best.

There are too few races at weight-for-age but they would not take the place of carefully thought out condition races that would impose penalties on the top-notchers and, at the same time, let in others of lesser attainments at an advantage.

The champion should have his opportunity without being at the mercy of the handicapper and he can only have an adequate opportunity in these condition races.

One of the special attractions that is sought for the racing at New Orleans Fair Grounds for the meeting that is to open with 1925, is the good colt Chilhowee.

This swift-running son of Ballot, by his sensational races this year, could not fail to do a great good for the New Orleans racing. Patrons of the sport in the southern city have scant opportunity to see such stars in action and, by their loyalty to the sport, they are entitled to the best. Black Gold did much for racing in New Orleans and every inducement will be offered the Gallaher Brothers to send their great colt down for the meeting.

Such horses always do much for racing. They attract an attention to racing that is always desirable. They present racing at its best and every turf idol has done giant work in bringing to the sport the best of its devotees.

SCORES BY CLOSE MARGIN

June Fly Earns Head Decision in Thrilling Finish at Beulah Park.

COLUMBUS, Ohio, Nov. 5.—A featureless card was provided at Beulah Park this afternoon. The best field of the seven claiming races paraded in the concluding dash, but due to scratching was reduced to six starters. The finish was productive of a thriller, however, when June Fly, showing sudden improvement, earned a head decision over Clock Stocking. June Fly drew away into a long lead rounding the stretch turn, but jockey Wood all but tossed the race off. He was taking things decidedly easy in the closing stages when Clock Stocking finished with a rush and all but nipped the winner at the end. Pretext outgamed The Almoner for third place.

Bethlehem Steel, displaying vast improvement, outran her opponents throughout the sixth race. Quaver, the favorite, came from far back to get second place. Miracle Man was another that came with a rush and never left the result in serious doubt in the fifth. Holly boy and Black Foot also won in a runaway fashion. Keaolani and Tricks found stiffer opposition in their races and got home only after hard struggles. Judge Hickman, pronounced favorite, pulled up lame after the second race.

T. W. Whiteside and W. E. Jones will ship from here to Bowie at the close of this meeting on Saturday. A special horse train will also leave for Tijuana and Havana conveying stables for the winter meetings at these points.

E. W. Moore, Gene Lutz and many others will ship to New Orleans.

SHIPPED TO NEW ORLEANS

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Nov. 5.—Fifteen horses, owned or managed by J. McPherson, were shipped tonight to New Orleans, where they will be stabled at the Fair Grounds. Some good racing material comprises the consignment and includes Guest of Honor, Marvin May, Bignonia, Buttress and others.

$2 mutuels paid—Lucky Drift, $15.10 straight, $5.90 place, $4.80 show; Fair Vision, $4.90 place, $4.20 show; Lucky, $7.80 show.

Equivalent booking odds—Lucky Drift, 655 to 100 straight, 195 to 100 place, 140 to 100 show; Fair Vision, 145 to 100 place, 110 to 100 show; Lucky, 290 to 100 show.

Winner—Ch. f, by Huon—Drift, by Pataud (trained by R. C. Frakes; bred by Mr. Henry H. Hewitt).

Went to post at 1:58. At post 1 minute. Start good and slow. Won driving; second and third the same. LUCKY DRIFT took the lead quickly and showed fine speed in fast pacemaking and, finishing gamely, outstayed FAIR VISION. The latter was in closest pursuit all the way, but lost ground by coming wide into the stretch, then almost got up in the final drive. LUCKY saved much ground on the turns and finished fast. TWILIGHT HOUR was away stumbling and suffered from interference soon after the start and tired in the stretch after racing into third place. SARI was always outpaced and far back.

85516 THIRD RACE—1 1-16 Miles. (May 24, 1922—1:44—4—113.) Purse $1,200. 3-year-olds and upward. Claiming. Net value to winner $900; second, $200; third, $100.

TWO SPECIAL

Getaway Good Things

AT CHURCHILL DOWNS

My first Getaway Special starts Friday, November 7th. The race in which this special good one goes on Friday looks like a real soft spot, and I wish to say to all my followers to have a strong bet to win, and you will be stringing along with some of the smartest turfmen operating at Churchill Downs.

MY SECOND GETAWAY

STAR SPECIAL

GOES SATURDAY, NOV. 8

Getaway Day. The reason they have selected the last day is because there will be many people at the track. It will help us to get a big price on this horse. It would be useless to search the form charts on Saturday's Super-Special as recent form does not show him much support. Those in charge of this Special seldom make any mistakes.

You all remember when I advertised my last two GETAWAY at Latonia, and both horses won. The foundation of my success throughout the year is information alone that made me famous and the peer of them all in this business. If you have never followed me before, start with me Friday and you will be convinced, as many others have. I ALSO HAVE WORD ON TWO GOOD ONES at PIMLICO on the same days, that I will give to all my clients FREE OF CHARGE, TO THOSE WHO SUBSCRIBE for my two getaway good ones at Churchill Downs.

Terms, for Both Specials, $5

YOU GET THE TWO SPECIALS FOR FIVE DOLLARS. When you subscribe to my service, you receive in return just what you pay for. Information, the REAL KIND, the KIND THAT INFORMS. REAL INSIDE ADVICE. Each and every horse a supposed medium for delivery, with the information emanating from the right source. If you are a speculator, be convinced and send in your subscription at once.

OUR BIG SUPER SPECIALS WILL BE SOLD AT OFFICE ADDRESS ONLY

BETTING SECRET SATURDAY

AT LAUREL

My Next Special Goes Saturday, November 8

This horse has been carefully prepared for this race. We have a good rider and the stable expects an easy win. Will wire to all responsible people who will pay me after they win. This looks like the best thing I have had this season.

TERMS—Winnings of five dollars straight, payable after the horse wins. Wire correct address.

MILTON HOWARD
1418 N. Charles St. Baltimore, Md.

GETAWAY SPECIAL

At Churchill Downs, will be turned loose Friday or Saturday and should win in a common gallop at a nice price. Expect this to be the outstanding "good thing" of the present meet. If you are honest and will remit winnings of a $25.00 straight play, write or wire.

GILBERT MADISON
123 East Canal. Cincinnati, Ohio

Pay From Your Profits

THE MASTER KEY SYSTEM of playing the races will be mailed you for one week's trial. No charge unless it shows an average profit of at least $10 a day on the $3 scale of play. For particulars mail this ad and a two-cent stamp to

Time, 23⅗, 48⅖, 1:13⅗, 1:40, 2:05. Track fast.

$2 mutuels paid—Aga Khan, $3.60 straight; no place or show mutuels sold.

Equivalent booking odds—Aga Khan, 80 to 100 straight.

Winner—Br. c, by Omar Khayyam—Lady Carnot, by Radium (trained by J. Fitzsimmons; bred by Belair Stud).

Went to post at 3:49. At post 1 minute. Start good and slow. Won easily; second and third driving. AGA KHAN raced under restraint for the first three-quarters, then moved up on the outside with a rush and, after racing into a good lead, was again taken under restraint. SENATOR NORRIS is improving and, after setting a fast pace, held BIG BLAZE safe in the stretch drive. The latter raced gamely, but tired.

Scratched—84834 Altawood, 110; 85416 Ballot Brush, 98.

85526 SIXTH RACE—1 Mile and 70 Yards. (Nov. 3, 1923—1:42⅕—3—110.) Glenmore Purse. Purse $2,000. All Ages. Allowances. Net value to winner $1,400; second, $400; third, $200.

PIMLICO FUTURITY FRIDAY

Several Prominent Candidates Show Fast Gallops.

Sun Flag and Spot Cash Work for Saturday's Features—Gossip of Horsemen and Horses.

PIMLICO, Md., Nov. 5.—Several of the leading two-year-olds were out for extended exercise this morning. Some of them are preparing for the $40,000 added Pimlico Futurity which is to be run Friday. Among the best moves from a time point of view were those of J. E. Griffith's Single Foot, the Jeffords' By Hisself, and H. P. Whitney's Candy Kid. Each covered a mile, the Futurity distance, in 1:42. Single Foot registered fractions as follows: 24⅗; 36⅗; 59; 1:02; 1:15⅗; 1:29. By Hisself showed early speed. He went the quarter in 24⅗ and finished out in 36⅗, 49, 1:02, 1:15⅗, 1:29. American Flag, with which Gwyn Tompkins won the Manor on Saturday last, for the Glen Riddle Farm, ran the mile in 1:43, with fractions as follows: 24; 49; 1:02⅕; 1:16; 1:29; 1:43. Battle Field and Dangerous, the G. A. Cochran pair, went a mile in 1:44⅘, the first three-quarters in 1:16⅕. Young Martin, recently sold by J. E. Madden to L. Waterbury, showed trainer Max Hirsch a mile in 1:44⅘. He started slowly, but finished out with even speed.

Most prominent of the older horses training for stake engagements this morning were Sun Flag and Spot Cash. Both are eligible to the mile of the Pimlico Weight-for-Age race No. 2., which will be decided Saturday. The Cochran three-year-old outworked the Bostwick four-year-old and may be a hard horse to catch Saturday if he runs as he did in the Maryland Handicap at Laurel. He showed a quarter in 24, went to the half in 48, completed five-eighths in 1:00⅗, turned three-quarters in 1:14, seven-eighths in 1:27, passed the mile in 1:40⅖, and eased up the mile and an eighth in 1:55. Spot Cash worked as follows: 24⅘, 49, 1:02⅗, 1:15, 1:42⅘, 1:56.

Hallucination was on the track this morning for an easy mile in 1:47⅘. Those who saw the big chestnut running in Canada are not willing to admit that his showing in the Washington Handicap was a true reflection of his ability.

Sunny Man was sent a half mile in 52 this morning.

P. Dougherty and W. C. Trovar entered claims of $2,000 for Master Hand which carried the colors of P. H. Sims in the last race Tuesday. Dougherty outdrew Trover and Master Hand is destined for Cuba.

James Rowan is an arrival from New York with one jumper.

Jim Evans is among the recent New York contributions to the paddock group.

A. S. Woodliffe will ship the several stables in his charge to New Orleans at the end of the Pimlico meeting.

T. Fennessey is nursing a dislocated shoulder and wrenched muscles of the back. His injuries resulted from a fall at Belmont Park on Friday.

Paul Madeira arrived from Youngstown, where he rode with success. He brought word that jockeys Punshon and Casserolla, who were injured in the same fall there, are on the road to recovery. Punshon is injured more seriously than Casserolla. Both suffered skull fractures. In addition one of Punshon's arms was broken in two places.

Twelve cars of horses, practically the entire collection that raced at Youngstown, are reported on the way to Cuba.

PIMLICO TRACK NOTES

BALTIMORE, Md., Nov. 5.

The entries will close at 1:30 in the future.

Belle of Detroit, in the string of J. P. Smith, was fired.

R. L. Noble and wife, of Gloversville, N. Y., are guests of Charles Primrose and Kim Patterson.

A. C. Bostwick's Dreammaker pulled up lame after a three-quarter work this morning.

W. Zeigler's Star Lore, a Futurity candidate, was on the track after the first race, but did not work.

Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Bradley are arrivals from Kentucky. The master of Idle Hour Stud goes from here to New Orleans next week to look over the situation at the Fair Grounds.

J. Pangle bought from W. Irvine the contract on the apprentice, P. Taullelle, and sold Miss Miami, a yearling by Donna Conna-Money Box to C. Mackey. Taullelle won a maiden jockey race at Fort Erie during the summer.

J. A. Coburn arrived from New York and reported he had received notice of the safe arrival of his horses at New Orleans. He will spend a short vacation at his Oakland home before the opening of the Jefferson Park meeting.

CHURCHILL DOWNS NOTES

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Nov. 5.

Jockeys C. O'Malley and N. Burger, who rode on the Ohio and West Virginia tracks, arrived Wednesday.

William Harris, who officiated as starter on the tracks at Wheeling, Akron and Youngstown, was among Wednesday's arrivals.

W. Covington has been engaged by Messrs. Montfort and B. B. Jones to assist in the training of the yearlings at Audley Farm during the winter.

Frank A. Gailor returned Wednesday from Saratoga Springs, N. Y., where he had gone to attend the funeral of his father, who died suddenly.

JOCKEY HEUPEL SUSPENDED

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Nov. 5.—For using foul language after dismounting a horse on Monday and subsequent impudence to the officials, jockey J. Heupel was suspended for the remainder of the meeting. He did not come to the track Tuesday, but upon his reappearance today he was rebuked by the stewards and notified of his suspension.

SARAZEN RETIRED FOR THE YEAR

SARAZEN

Mrs. Vanderbilt's great little racer, Sarazen, has arrived at Belmont Park after a strenuous fall campaign and was immediately sent into winter quarters and retired from the activities of the race track until next year. Sarazen won eight out of twelve starts this year and accounted for $95,640 in prize money. His greatest triumph of the year was in the Third International Special at Latonia, when he beat Epinard in one of the fastest races ever run anywhere, at a mile and a quarter.

The closing race brought a spirited finish between Parader and Johnny Jewell with the former the winner by a short margin after a terrific battle by the pair in the stretch. Ramkin was in a kindly mood in the early running and it carried him around the others with a rush at the stretch turn, but he began sulking again in the last sixteenth, but held to third place.

Mrs. George B. Cox, owner of the Parkview Stable, bought privately this afternoon from J. B. Respess the fast sprinter, Energy, which will race tomorrow in her interests.

second and Mungo, the public choice, was third. Sun Altos was always in closest pursuit of the winner, but could never gain on him. Mungo met with no mishaps, but was out-distanced by the leaders, though he was overtaking Sun Altos at the finish.

Tribute named to go in the second race tomorrow is an eight-year-old gelding by Kilogram—Royal Jig. He belongs to L. M. Stackhouse, and is trained by E. Williams.

Kentucky Cardinal galloped three-quarters in 1:17 after the jumping race today. He is the Futurity candidate belonging to Desh Breckinridge.
